

As a US citizen and taxpayer, I urge you to band BPL modes of digital communication in our country! In my opinion it would (1) detrimentally effect radio communication for us citizens (commercial and amateur), and (2)unnecessarily expose the US population to higher background levels of RF radiation. Broadband Over Power Line (BPL) technology poses significant interference potential to HF and low-VHF spectrum use between 2 and 80 MHz.